

Songwriting

CALLUM BEATTIE

Callum has been hard at music for almost half his life, making his own chances, taking chances and, for sure, being a chancer. The Edinburgh-born singer-songwriter has progressed from bad gigs in pubs, to where he is now: a singer-songwriter with a punchy, rousing, emotive and gloriously catchy debut album that scored a No.1 in The Official Scottish Albums Chart.

After residing in London and Berlin for a few years, Callum has decided to move back to Scotland. His new material is a collection of songs clawed from the raw stuff of existence, nostalgic patriotism and bleeding love.

“Callum Beattie is a singer like no other.” THE TELEGRAPH

“Fragrant songwriting bless with innate imagination.” CLASH

“One of Scotland’s more sizzling musical talents.” Evening Standard

Artist Highlights

- Half a billion radio audience impressions across tracks from ‘People Like Us’
- #1 Album in The Official Scottish Albums Charts
- #7 Album in The Official UK Album Sales Charts
- #1 Album on iTunes singer/songwriter charts
- x6 iTunes #1 singles in the singer/songwriter chart
- x7 BBC Radio 2 playlist records
- BBC Radio 2 ‘Album Of The Week’
- BBC Radio 2 ‘Biggest Weekend’ Performance in Perth, Scotland
- SOLD OUT 2021 Scottish tour
- Festival appearances at Glastonbury, BST Hyde Park, T In The Park, and The Great Escape
- Press Highlights include, F Word, Clash, The Independent, Skope Mag and Spindle Magazine

Callum Music Sampler

click to listen