DUB FX

INFINITE REFLECTION TOUR

Dub FX, the Australian musician, street performer, and social activist, is announcing his 15th European tour supporting his highly anticipated upcoming album "Infinite Reflection". The tour is scheduled to kick off on September 21st, 2023, and promises to be a magical experience for European fans.

With his unique mix of live looping, beatboxing and world-class production, Dub FX has gained worldwide recognition for promoting positivity, unity, and social awareness through his distinct and powerful lyrics. His upcoming album, "Infinite Reflection", celebrates soulful sounds, head-nodding beats, and positive conscious messaging and is set to release in August 2023.

"Festivals are wicked but short... in the clubs, I get to stretch out the setlist and really take people on a journey! I can't wait" said Dub FX. The European tour will see the man perform in some of the most iconic venues across Europe. The tour promises to be a long series of high-energy and immersive live shows that will transport fans to a different dimension.

Don't miss the chance to experience Dub FX's Infinite Reflection tour. Tickets are on sale now; more information can be found on Dub FX's official website.
