Jon Spencer teams up with Kendall Wind and Macky Spider Bowman - the rhythm section from Woodstock NY punk rock wunderkind The Bobby Lees - to chew bubblegum and kick ass.

Two years after "Spencer Gets It Lit" (Marc Riley's BBC 6Music Album of the Year, "hugely entertaining" * MOJO, "a sonic witchdoctor who'll blow your mind" * UNCUT) there is still more work to be done saving rock'n'roll music.

Jon Spencer has been an innovative force in the independent music scene since the mid-80s. An acclaimed live performer, he has toured all the continents except Antarctica and has amassed a dizzying discography as leader of Pussy Galore, The Jon Spencer Blues Explosion, Heavy Trash and Jon Spencer & The HITmakers, as well as with Boss Hog, The Honeymoon Killers, The Gibson Brothers, and Taxi Girls.

His collaborations include (but are not limited to) Steve Albini, RL Burnside, Beck, Beastie Boys, Chuck D, DJ Shadow, GZA, Moby, The Sadies, UNKLE, Andre Williams, Nancy Sinatra, Solex, Solomon Burke, Dr. John, The North Mississippi All-stars, Samantha Fish, Dan The Automator, Calvin Johnson, Guitar Wolf, Coldcut, Bomb The Bass, Einsturzende Neubauten, Khan, The Muffs, Money Mark.
