

MARÍA JOSE LLERGO

FLAMENCO, FUSION, ROOT MUSIC

María José Llergo is a standout voice in contemporary flamenco, blending traditional roots with modern, urban sounds. Born in rural Pozoblanco, Córdoba, her music is deeply emotional, honoring flamenco tradition while embracing new, innovative directions.

In 2021, she recorded two sessions for A Colors Show: La Luz and Tu Piel.

Just a year later she became the face of a campaign for fashion brand Loewe alongside Rossy De Palma, establishing her status as a national flamenco icon. In 2024, she starred in a Tiny Desk Session, amassing over 388,000 views in just two months. Her latest album, Ultrabelleza, was selected by Rolling Stone as one of the 50 best Spanish-language albums of 2023.

INTERNATIONAL SHOWS

2024 - Flamenco Festival (London)

2023 - US Tour (Miami, Los Angeles, New York, Chicago, Seattle, San Francisco, Boston and Philadelphia)

HIGHLIGHTS

The New York Times María José Llergo's Songs Have Flamenco Roots. They Raise a Ruckus.

Pitchfork The Best Music by Latine and Spanish Artists in 2023

Rolling Stone Spanish Singer María José Llergo on Flamenco's Radical Roots

Rolling Stone The 50 Best Spanish-Language Albums of 2023

LOEWE El Día Internacional de la Mujer con María José Llergo

NOTABLE SINGLES

La Luz - A COLORS SHOW
5,373,149 views

Me Miras Pero No Me Ves
3,820,890 views

RUEDA, RUEDA
1,021,659 views

ULTRABELLEZA
841,497 views

